

SHAC Meeting Minutes- February 10, 2022

4:00-4:05- Welcome and Opening Remarks- The meeting was brought to order and the purpose of today's meeting was shared. Handouts available on back table along with a sign in sheet for the committee members to sign in.

4:05-4:10- FHS Student Ambassador Feedback- Student Ambassadors from high schools gave update on different presentations available. They are able to go other organizations or places to present on distracted driving, teen mental health or vaping.

4:10-4:13- Mental Health Resource Update- John Willome from the Good Samaritan reported he did not have an update for today's meeting. Brook Bodenhammer, the FISD wellness Counselor shared the resources available on the FISD website for families. Resources include names of area counselors and mental health information. This is the 1st year for the social work program as it is set up now. John Willome suggested promoting resources at FISD events.

4:13-4:40- Revisit Living Well Aware health curriculum & talk about a possible new curriculum adoption (overview of new Senate Bill) - Robin Derington discussed Senate Bill 9, the FISD Board adopted the policy in November. The Bill changes who can be on the SHAC committee and their responsibilities. SHAC is now responsible for textbook recommendations to the school board, this was responsibility previously held by principals. Robyn reminded the attendees that SHAC meetings are considered public meetings. Robyn discussed the new textbook adoptions process. TEA vetted materials were recommended because they have already been approved by the state and they align with the TEKS. TEA approved materials can be seen on the TEA website and Robyn shared how to see those textbooks on the list. She reminded people not to print any samples from the website as they are copyrighted. The question was asked how state board was elected and how TEKS were written. Robyn answered that State board members are elected and that TEKS are written by groups of teachers who represent schools from around the state.

4:40-4:44- Dalen Kirchner reminded everyone that the Health textbooks would be the main topic going forward in SHAC. Coaches asked about dates and times because of game conflicts and time changes were discussed but not decided.

4:45-4:47- Law Enforcement Safety Update and need from FISD- there have been 4 fights this year. There had also been an issue with graffiti until the individual was caught. Vaping continues to be a major issue among high school students with both nicotine and THC vapes. School Resource Officers are seeing vaping issue occurring at the middle school level and have seen a few cases at the elementary school as well. Other problems the school resources officers have seen are alcohol on campus, threats. It is hard to ticket at school; there are no Class C tickets at schools except traffic tickets.

4:47-4:53- Addition of Parent Volunteers-SHAC roles- 5 chair members- chair or co-chair must be occupied by a parent by new SHAC rules.

4:53-5:08- Comments/ Questions:

Senate Bill 9 addresses child abuse and sex trafficking will these be addressed in the textbooks and TEKS? - Robyn Derington said yes they would in response to Senate Bill 9. Robyn also recommended people joining SHAC to recommend new textbooks read TEKS to know expectations. Coach Inman asked if the current curriculum would be withdrawn since it is outdated or if it would be continued to be used as a resource. It was agreed the current curriculum is outdated and the responsibility of the SHAC would be to be in compliance and new regulations.

5:08- Jessica Lutz motioned to adjourn the meeting and Patricia Smith seconded the motion.
